at the Opera House the other night, can get

C. A. Harrison has been at Detroit this week attending a meeting of the executive board of the State board of agriculture.

The Decatur Republican says a couple of high-toned young men of that village were in the lock-up at Kalamazoo one day last week, for being drunk.

We have to thank J. C. Murphy, formerly of Porter, for a copy of the San Jose Daily Mercury. It is a splendid paper and shows commendable enterprise.

W. H. Randall received a letter the other day that evidently was in the mail car which was burned last week in Canada. It had no stamp on and its edges were badly singed.

The school house in District No. 1, Marcellus, was burned one day last week. About 40 scholars were attending school there, and lost their books as well as being deprived of the chance of attending school.

Dr. Scott and J. W. Free went hunting turkeys last Saturday. Scott got nothing and Free got a "duck." The water was about 5 feet deep and it took him two hours to dry his clothes. Had John been in the habit of "filling up," people would say he was drunk.

The following is a copy of a prescription found among the waste paper of a late drug firm of this village. We are not "up" in pharmacopoeia, but some of our readers may be able to understand what especial malady it was intended to cure:

"R" Fluid Ext. Injun Jim, xvii drs.
Hy. Phosphate Big Foot, xii grs.
Shake well before using. M. D.

Maxwell's theatrical troupe will be here next week.

Scott Wood is the happy father of a bouncing six pound boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Voke's little girl of two weeks old, died on Tuesday night.

We are informed that the Presbyterian church choir propose, in the near future, to give a concert.

Chas. E. Galligan, Jr., and Mary A. Sage were tied together for life by Justice Mason on the 10th inst.

St. Mark's Literary Society will give an oyster supper at the Dyckman House on next Wednesday evening.

Governor Jerome has appointed Fred. J.
Meech, of Norwood, Charlevoix county, as successor to the late J. B. Haviland, State swamp land commissioner.

Capt. B. H. Dyckman, of South Haven, and Mr. Sebring, of Gobles, recently bought some blooded Jersey cattle at a sale of the estate of James Taylor of Kalamazoo.

A. C. Glidden reads an essay on "the lessons of the year" before the Kalamazoo County Farmer's Institute at Galesburg, which will be held on February 1st and 2d.

The ladies of the Free Baptist church and society, will give an Ice Cream social at the residence of E. Darling, Tuesday evening, Jan. 17th. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The examination of Dr. Nelson for bastardy, was concluded on Monday. He was held to bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance in the circuit court. Ed. Towers and Judson Breed were his bondsmen.

Parties are agitating the building of a Railroad from Elkhart, Ind., to Allegan, via Cassopolis, Decatur, Paw Paw and Gobles.
Such road would give to us just the outlet that is needed. Should it be finally decided to build the road, Paw Paw will do what it can to push it through with all possible speed.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of this village, held on Tuesday of this week, the following Directors were elected: A. Sherman, T. L.
Stevens, Niles; B. A. Olney, Hartford; E. A.
Park, F. E. Stevens, C. Billsborrow and E.
R. Annable. The Board then elected A.
Sherman, President; E. A. Park, Vice President; F. E. Stevens, Cashier, and F. L.
Stevens, Assistant Cashier.

Judge Mills opened court on Monday afternoon, and conducted it as if he had been "to the Manor born." The first business transacted was the arraignment of prisoners. Ezra Barton pleaded guilty to burglary and was promptly sentenced to State prison for two years. Frank Cramer pleaded guilty to larceny, and drew a free ticket to Jackson for three years. Good; we are prepared to say that court opens well under the new administration.

A State Farmers' Institute will be held at Cassopolis next week commencing on Tuesday. We notice from the excellent programme of topics to be discussed, that Erastus Osborn, of Hamilton, and Hon. J. J.
Woodman are to take the lead in two important discussions, the former on "Drainage" and the latter on "Transportation." L.
B. Lawrence, of Little Prairie Ronde, is to tell them "to what extent we can do without farm fences."

The appointment of Dr. Woodman as Postmaster, has been sent to the Senate, which will no doubt be confirmed. The Dr. is a staunch Republican, and will conduct the affairs of the office to the entire satisfaction of those who get their mail there. We hope, however, he will move the office down town, for the nearer it is to the business part of the village the better it will accommodate everybody, and especially the business men and farmers who come here for their mail.

We commence publishing this week the report of the committee on claims as passed by the Board of Supervisors. There are always a large number of claims allowed by the Board that are not called for, having been forgotten by the claimants or otherwise, which often remain in the clerk's office for years. All will now have an opportunity of knowing whether an order has been allowed them by the present Board. The NORTHERNER is the only paper in the county in which the list will be published.

The following officers were installed into their respective positions at the meeting of Paw Paw Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., on Friday evening last: N. G., Wm. H. Mason; V. G., Ashbel H. Herron; S., James H.
Waters; T., Edwin Martin; W., J. L. Tyrell; C., Samuel H. Blackman; I. G., Warren Kinney; O. G., Rodolphus Rogers; R. S. S., Harmon Johnson; L. S. S., Joseph Mather; R. S. N. G., O. W. Rowland; L. S. N. G., M. U. Richardson; R. S. V. G., David Chapman; Librarian, E. M. Snow; Representative to G. L., Edwin Martin.

Hon. H. C. Buffington, U. S. Commercial Agent to Chatham, Ont., paid us a visit on Wednesday evening of this week. Mr. B. is on a brief visiting tour among old friends in this and Cass counties. He speaks in highly complimentary terms of our Dominion neighbors and looks as though they enjoyed the good things of life in her Majesty's possessions.

An amusing scene transpired in court on Monday, when old Barton was arraigned.
The prosecutor, not knowing he was deaf, read to him the complaint in a usual tone of voice, to which the old man promptly plead guilty. The court, however, knowing his infirmity, inquired if he understood what had been read to him, to which he replied he had not heard a word of it. O. W. drew a long breath, raised his voice about four octaves and roared in the old man's ear the complaint. He did not change his plea.

Judge Mills has made an excellent new court rule, that of summoning the jury to be in attendance on the second week of the term. Heretofore the jury has frequently waited a day or two before called upon to try a case while the court was disposing of other matters. Litigants were also compelled to have their witnesses in attendance two or three days before their cases would be called.
Under the new rule, all motions, non-jury and chancery cases, can be disposed of and the jury calendar made up so that each litigant will know the order in which his case will be taken up. This will make quite a saving in court expenses to both the county and litigants.

Dr. E. A. Adams who was stabbed by a lunatic at the Kalamazoo asylum, on Friday last, died on Saturday morning. Winans, the lunatic who killed him, is an incurable who was sent to the asylum from Jackson in 1879. He had made frequent threats before and had been searched, but in this case had found a knife which had been lost by an attendant and concealed for the purpose of killing the Dr. As the Dr. came near Winans that morning, he drew the knife from his sleeve and struck him two blows in the abdomen, the latter entering the body about three inches below the breast bone, cutting upward to the bone. The Dr. fell to the floor but arose in a few seconds and went unassisted to his room. The other physicians of the institution and of the village were summoned, but his wound was fatal and he died as above stated. The Dr. was comparatively a young man, only 33, but was well up in his profession. His remains were taken to North Brookfield, Mass.

Among the early settlers of this county was John Lyle who moved into this township in the year 1835. He was the father of ten children, five boys and five girls, all of whom lived to be married and settled in this village or immediate vicinity. The girls are all now living here. Two of the boys, John and William, live about three miles from this place, one Mervin, at Decatur, and Daniel at Dowagiac. George, who died at the latter place on Monday last, aged 41 years, was the youngest of the family. What is very remarkable is that out of so large a number of brothers and sisters, all should live until the youngest was over forty years old, and that they should have, for so many years, continued to live so near together. They have all been worthy and respected members of society, and John and Daniel are counted among the wealthiest men of this section.

Rev. J. B. Drew remembered his Sabbath school scholars on New Year's day, by presenting them some beautiful New Year's cards, on which he had printed the following original verses:

A Happy New Year, to the lambs of my flock, Your pastor most earnestly says;
A Happy New Year, filled with blessings for all,
He fervently wishes and prays.
Forn good resolutions, and pray for God's grace To teach you to keep them right;
And never forget that His love and His care Are around you by day and by night.
A Happy New Year! Oh, be lambs of His fold, Who loves you and calls you His own;
Who will guide you through life, and give you at last A place in His glorious home.
To Jesus, your Shepherd, your strength, your hope O lambs, to that Shepherd most dear, Your pastor commends you, and earnestly prays, A Happy, a Happy New Year.
J. B. DREW, Paw Paw, Mich.
